A few questions inspired by our Sunday service designed to start conversations with those you're in community with, help you make connections to your everyday life, and push you to consider how you can get closer to God this week.

1. Who's the first person you go to for advice about problems, challenges, or obstacles in your life? Why?
2. Do you ever talk to God? Unpack why or why not.
3. Share about a time you found yourself desperately begging God for something. What drove you to that point?
